I, Travis M. McGregor, claim via this complaint and litigation, that Wolfgang Decker, residing at Brunnwartsweg 2b, 82031, Gruenwald, Germany, Munich Area, Germany, has misappropriated trade secrets from Vesto, a limited liability company with a registered address at 1712 Pioneer Avenue, Suite – 500, Cheyenne, Wyoming, 82001, United States. This complaint is to seek injunctive relief to restrain Defendant from using, developing, filing patent applications, and/or hypothecating the rightful intellectual property of Vesto and its Members’ interests inclusively for Defendant’s self-dealings that do not involve the Members of Vesto’s financial interests in the matter of not providing any technical, meeting notes, and novel material to file patent applications to Plaintiff after nine months of repeated requests.

Plaintiff seeks the full and exclusive assignment and perfection of the chain-of-title of all relevant Vesto intellectual property to the Vesto, for the inclusive benefit of the Members of Vesto. Relevant information to form protectable and enforceable intellectual property is defined as any and all communications, oral and/or written, between (i) James Wallace, Data Management Architect, Enterprise Architect and Business Strategist at Federated Hermes and (ii) unknown to Plaintiff, representatives of Giesecke+Devrient GmbH.
